Re: Board of Directors

Womens Bowls NSW takes this opportunity to welcome Katrina Wright back onto the Board to fill a casual vacancy.

Katrina who elected not to renominate her Directors position at the last AGM, has accepted an invitation from the Directors to re-join the board. This ensures that the board has an appropriate number of Directors to constitute a quorum and more importantly continue to serve Womens Bowls NSW members. Katrina's return as a Director enables the board to call upon her business pedigree and vast player experience as they delve into a new chapter in the Associations 90 year history.

In the coming weeks, the Board will be appointing new appropriately qualified individuals to the board to fill the remaining vacant positions . We also note that information regarding the composition of respective committees will be announced in the coming days once position invitations have been accepted.

The Womens Bowls NSW Board which consists of Pam Andrich, Sandra Jowett, Dilys Kindleysides, Lesley Swales and Katrina Wright look forward to working with the membership for the betterment of the sport for women in this state.

Kind Regards
Women's Bowls NSW
