- AGMs may be postponed – situations vary between state/territory jurisdictions and will depend on the incorporation of the business

(1) Where Clubs/Associations are registered as Companies, ASIC has determined that AGMs can be postponed for two months where AGMs due to be held by 31 May

- It is expected that ASIC will also provide further updates for businesses with March, April, May or June year end dates in coming months.
- More details can be found at: <https://asic.gov.au/about-asic/news-centre/find-a-media-release/2020-releases/20-068mr-guidelines-for-meeting-upcoming-agm-and-financial-reporting-requirements>

(2) Where Clubs/Associations are incorporated as Associations, the rules with respect to AGMs are determined by the relevant state/territory trading or consumer affairs department:

- NSW – Department of Fair Trading – Associations can apply for an extension of time if it cannot hold its AGM within six months after the end of its financial year. This is done by lodging the following (Form A11): https://www.fairtrading.nsw.gov.au/_data/assets/pdf_file/0011/483662/Form-A11-Application-for-extension-of-time-for-holding-AGM-or-lodging-annual-summary-of-financial-affairs.pdf
- VIC – Consumer Affairs Victoria – Associations can apply for an extension of time if it cannot hold its AGM within five months after the end of its financial year. This is done by lodging a form which can be found here: <https://www.consumer.vic.gov.au/clubs-and-fundraising/incorporated-associations/fees-and-forms>
- QLD – Office of Fair Trading – Normal practice is that an individual association is required to lodge an application outlining the special circumstances as to why the extension of time should be granted. However in the current circumstances, the Chief Executive will allow associations a grace period of a further six months if required to hold its AGM without the need for an association to make a written application (i.e. AGMs can be held up to twelve months after the end of the financial year). In effect, this may result in the term

- of a management committee being longer than is provided for in the rules, but given the current circumstances it is hoped members will be accepting of this.
- SA – Consumer and Business Services - If Associations are unable to hold an AGM within the legislated timeframe, Consumer and Business Services will take no action where AGMs are postponed for up to 6 months. More details at: <https://www.cbs.sa.gov.au/news/information-associations>
 - WA – Department of Mines, Industry Regulation and Safety – Associations can apply for an extension of time if it cannot hold its AGM within six months after the end of its financial year, but only if the request is made before that period expires. An application for an extension of time to hold the AGM can be lodged using the following link: <https://associations.commerce.wa.gov.au/associations/public/publicHomePage.jspx>
 - TAS – Consumer Building and Occupational Services - Associations can apply for an extension of time if it cannot hold its AGM within three months after the end of its financial year. This can be done by using the enquiry form linked: <https://forms.justice.tas.gov.au/Produce/wizard/b1a0eb99-80ac-43cc-8907-1d8fe496fc17/?id=b1a0eb99-80ac-43cc-8907-1d8fe496fc17&portal=1&prepared=true&logGuid=1b88a587-6953-40b3-82f9-63857831109f>
 - ACT – Access Canberra – In response the restrictions in place due to COVID-19, Access Canberra has applied a three-month extension to all associations who are due to hold an AGM. The extension applies until 30 June 2020. Should the restrictions continue beyond 30 June 2020 a further extension will be provided. Associations are not required to contact Access Canberra to arrange the extension, it has been automatically applied.
 - NT – Licensing NT – Associations can apply for an extension of time if it cannot hold its AGM within five months after the end of its financial year. This can be done by contacting Licensing NT: <https://nt.gov.au/industry/licences/licensing-nt-contacts>

(3) Clubs/Associations may also choose to run their AGMs remotely via the use of technology if their Constitution allows – the following flowchart (provided by Not-For-Profit Law) offers some guidance as to whether this may be possible:
